

The National Whig

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 13, 1847.

FOR PRESIDENT, IN 1848,

MAJOR GENERAL

ZACHARY TAYLOR,

OF LOUISIANA,

THE HERO

MONTEREY,

And Buena Vista.

Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

Notice.—The subscribers to the National Whig are respectfully requested not to pay the money which may be due for the paper to any one but to me in person. G. L. GILCHREST. WASHINGTON, May 11, 1847.

CORRESPONDENTS will please keep copies of their communications to the "NATIONAL WHIG," as we have no time to attend to the preservation of manuscripts.

TRAVELLING AGENTS wanted for the NATIONAL WHIG in the several States. Apply to the Proprietor, C. W. Fenton, either in person or by letter. Compensation liberal. None need apply unless they can give the most unexceptionable testimonials.

LATER FROM OLD ZACH!

We have advices from the gallant Old Hero up to the 14th of April. He was still encamped at Walnut Springs. The informant of the New Orleans Delta says, that he had heard of the uprising of the People in the United States with the determination to make him their President. The volunteers whose periods of service were expiring, were all preparing to return home. A squadron of May's dragoons had made a dash at Minon with his 2000 lancers, near Incarnation, but they ran.

STILL LATER FROM MEXICO!

JALAPA AND PEROTE IN OUR POSSESSION.

The U. S. Steamship New Orleans, arrived at New Orleans, on the evening of the 5th instant, from Vera Cruz, which place she left on the 29th ultimo, with advices of the capture of Jalapa and Perote without resistance.

It seems that on the 19th of April, General Twiggs pursued the retreating Mexican army to within a few miles of Jalapa. Night overtaking him he encamped, and the next day he entered the town which offered no resistance. Santa Ana did not in his flight pass through Jalapa, but turned off to the left by a pass in the mountains near one of his estates, where he spent the night. This pass was being fortified, but abandoned on the 20th and taken possession of by Col. Harney. Col. Childs was made Military Governor of Jalapa.

On the 21st of April, Gen. Worth approached to within five leagues of Perote, and entered the city on the next day. It was abandoned on the night previous—all the heavy guns and a large quantity of small arms fell into our possession. Ampudia with 3000 cavalry was near the town when it fell. Santa Ana had never been seen in Perote since the battle of Cerro Gordo.

Gen. Scott's Head Quarters were in a large house on the principal street of Jalapa near the market. Gen. Shields it was thought would recover. Gen. Patterson's health was better. Our loss at Cerro Gordo is now put down at 350. It was Gen. Twiggs who led the storming party up Cerro Gordo, and whose success gave us the victory.

Santa Ana was at Orizaba, where he entered with 200 dragoons. He had gathered together an army of 6000, and still talked of driving the invader into the sea. Poor fool!—he might as well talk of tumbling Orizaba into the ocean.

There was a rumor at Vera Cruz, that Santa Ana had been deposed by the home government, and Canizales appointed his successor. Worse and worse, if true! They also had a rumor that a correspondence between somebody and Rejon, had been intercepted by the Mexican authorities, and that it offered him the requisite means if he would bring about a peace. We should not be amazed if that somebody be the American Secretary of State, or the American President, making an offer of the 3 millions bribe money. We shall see.

The Vera Cruz papers say that Santa Ana would gladly escape from the country, if he were not afraid of assassination. Let him surrender himself to Scott, and throw himself on Mr. Polk's kindness. They are birds of a feather, and Mr. Polk could not do less than give him a pass out of the country, seeing that he gave him one into it!

The New Orleans Delta, says that General Taylor had communicated with Gen. Scott, and that the object of old Zach's despatch was to come to an understanding with the Hero of Cerro Gordo, for the purpose of effecting a junction of their respective columns before the descent upon the capital. This news confirms the statement we made on Tuesday.

Santa Ana boasts that there is another Thermopylae between Puebla and the Capital. There may be, but there will be no Leonidas there.

We have the particulars of the attack upon Tuxpan. Three Steamers and three gun boats with 1200 men and two pieces of artillery, entered the river and ploughed over the bar. The forts were taken by storm—our loss being 17 wounded. The guns of the Truxton were all recovered. The accounts speak in high terms of the bold and quick manner in which the enemy's works were taken from him. The town was abandoned by us on the 22d ult.—the Albany and a gun boat being left to guard the place.

Com. Perry, say the papers, projected an inland expedition with 2500 men—but when or where it is not named.

Since Scott has been in Mexico he has given President Polk and Secretary Marcy a most fitting and conclusive answer about the "hasty plate of soup," which was suffered for a space to weigh against his eminent skill as a General!

Some Tories of Bedford, Pa., have recently nominated Taylor for President and Shunk for Vice President, and they say—"painted be the arm that shall separate them." Wait, gentlemen—they are not united yet!

The Oregon fever is beginning to prevail extensively in Illinois. Companies of emigrants are often seen passing on their way to the country west of the Rocky Mountains. Some good farms in Bureau county, are offered for sale at a low rate, their owners desiring to emigrate.

Taylor won all his battles, says the N. York Com. and Advertiser, by his own personal conduct and bravery, and almost by miracle. He has never yet had sufficient means, at any time, to follow up any of his victories with decisive advantage.

The remains of Major Barbour arrived at Louisville last Saturday. He went to the battle with high hopes of earthly honor. He has received them, but not in the flesh. Decus fortibus!

Cuba. The rumor is abroad that the restless spirits of this island are projecting a severance from the home government, and a Union with the American States. Let them wait and get the country thoroughly Americanized first. Then we may think of the project.

The past week has been one of hot excitement in the religious and social world of New York. It has been the season of the anniversary meetings of the churches, of reform societies, &c. These are the safety valves of popular restlessness.

Maffit, who has so long humbugged the religious world, in a recent letter to an Irish Relief Committee, talks of "braiding the clouds of gloom hanging over Ireland with the rain-bow of plenty." He has only to hang his miniature upon the upper edge of that cloud to complete the picture!

The oldest house in Baltimore has been pulled down to make way for the advance of improvement. In it a ball was once given in honor of Gen. Washington. Thus they fall away, one by one!

A great General may win the battle, and an able "Jid" may give to the world a report which covers the General with almost as much honor as the battle itself. Correspondence Balt. American.

Washington had his defenders, and why should Taylor go free? Political liars enough (and this excellence) have been already found to swear that Bliss does Taylor's writing, and the next thing they will do, we have no doubt, will be to assert that some body else did the old Hero's fighting!

The Baltimore American has a correspondent who has been showing his malvolence by trying to depreciate and defame General Taylor, but he finds the task as difficult to accomplish as the viper did when it essayed to gnaw the file!

Taylor has never fought, within our recollection, without the heaviest losses. Correspond. Balt. Amer. And why? Because his government has never, in any instance, placed at his command enough of the material of war to ensure a different result.

Buena Vista. The New York Courier and Enquirer very truly says, that the battle of Buena Vista is without parallel in modern history, and is destined to stand isolated for centuries to come on the pages of the future, that it is another Marathon, and that no other man living could have gained that battle but Zachary Taylor!

The Virginia papers now make Bocock's majority 2 over Irving, and elect Flournoy by a majority of only one. And they also say that Bolling is elected by a majority of 8. We wait the official returns with perfect calmness, and hope our readers will do the same—for that we shall have a Whig House of Representatives is now no longer a question of doubt.

Guerrilla War. The Mexicans have resolved on guerrilla warfare. On the 8th of April bands of guerrillas left Mexico for the mountain passes. We may now look for reverses from the seat of war—reverses in the small but enough of them to make our stay uncomfortable.

The house of Hiram Wheeler, a peaceful citizen of Tauchanick, New York, was fired into on Saturday night, by a gang of incendiaries. Four musket balls were found lodged in the building, two of which were found near the beds in which Mr. Wheeler and his children slept.

ERRORS OF THE PRESS.—A Western Reserve paper, copying the Cin. Commercial article on the manufacture by Homes of shoe pegs, says, "I will astonish our readers to learn that in Cincinnati, pigs are made by steam, being turned out at the rate of 50,000 a minute." No doubt it would!

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN EGYPT.—The Impartial, of Smyrna, states that the Egyptian Government has recently promulgated a law for the abolition of slavery after the space of fifty days. At the slave mart there was in consequence a decline in prices of sixty per cent. No sales could be made, as after this interval of fifty days, every slave will be free to stay with or to leave his present owner, at pleasure.

There is an old lady in Russia 163 years of age only. She married her husband NUMBER FIVE at the age of 122.

The New Orleans Delta, says Prentice, a paper Democratic in its tendencies, notices General Taylor's nomination, and asks "what next?" Why, his election, to be sure!

Gen. Scott's victories (says the Baltimore Patriot) will avail nothing in the way of preventing THE PEOPLE from electing ZACHARY TAYLOR to the Presidency! Even if General Scott were forthwith to "revel in the Halls of the Montezumas," it could not cause THE PEOPLE to substitute him for their candidate in place of General TAYLOR! Both are great generals, and honorable, high-minded men. Both are good and true Whigs. But still the two men are widely different in their natures, in their dispositions, and in their bearing towards the people. Their fortunes when about to meet the enemy have been very different. The one has had every thing almost that a general could desire—the other, almost nothing! The one has long been known to the People as an aspirant for the Presidency—the other, has not been known as such. It requires no weather-vane to show which way the sympathies of the people are setting!

If any doubt this, (says the Richmond Whig) we would point them to the movements now going on in Kentucky—almost within sight of Ashland—movements directed by the most intimate personal and political friends and associates of Mr. Clay; by such men, for example, as Chilton Allan and William J. Graves—in favor of Gen. Taylor as the Whig candidate for the next Presidency. That this movement is sanctioned by Mr. Clay we have no doubt. We believe that, so far from feeling any mortification or resentment at the manifestations of popular feeling in favor of Gen. Taylor, "the heart of this great and magnanimous man is swelling with patriotic exultation," with the hope that, although another may be the chosen instrument of his country's regeneration, yet that the result will be attained—the only good, perhaps, which Providence may educe from the otherwise unmixt evil of the Mexican war—by the election of General Taylor.

The illumination in Washington and at the Navy Yard, Saturday night last, (says the Baltimore Patriot) as well as in this city some time since, spoke volumes of light upon the question as to the man who is most deeply enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen! The account of the great illumination in New York tells the same story. ZACHARY TAYLOR is that man! If he lives he will be our next President! This is gall and wormwood to the inmates and partizan-frequenters of the White House, but it cannot be helped! It is also gall and wormwood to them to know that HENRY CLAY is for him, and that the Whig candidates and Whig newspapers in Tennessee, Kentucky, and North Carolina, where elections are to be soon held, are all out for TAYLOR, and driving home upon their opponents the Taylor issue.

A LITANY—to be read on all convenient occasions. From fogs and bad devils, from mosquitoes and mad dogs, from bed-bugs and pettifoggers, deliver us.

From rats and rascality, from lady poets and love sonnets, from Yankee pedlars and delinquent subscribers—deliver us.

From hornets and horse jockeys, from smoky chimneys and qualling madams—deliver us.

From steam doctors and sea serpents, from vagrant musicians and militia fine collectors—deliver us.

From teasing sweethearts and tormenting creditors, from close-fisted customers and courts of judicature—O Lord, deliver us.—Old Newspaper.

From that unprincipled tyrant, James K. Polk, and all his little, unprincipled tyrants—from Tories and Toryism, and that old tory, Tom Ritchie—Good Lord deliver us!

The editor of the Washington Union says the Louisville Journal, seems very miserable at the thought that the Whigs may support Gen. Taylor for the Presidency without knowing whether he is a Whig or not. Well, if the Whigs elect Gen. Taylor and he shall turn out after all to be no Whig but a Tory, need the Tories be distressed at that? Why should the old man of the Union be so utterly wretched in view of the possibility of such a result?

A Relic of the Past.—A few days ago, while some workmen were engaged in tearing down a building in New Brunswick, N. J. occupied in his lifetime by that eminent jurist, Judge PATTERSON, one of them found the following card:

"The President of the United States and Mrs. Washington request the Pleasure of Judge and Mrs. Patterson's and Miss Patterson's Company to dine, on Saturday next at 4 o'clock, 6 May, 1795. An answer is requested."

The words in italics and figures are in the neat bold hand of Washington himself.

The ship Remittance carried to Brazos 300 U. S. troops, and on the 5th instant arrived at New Orleans with 25 officers and 405 men of the Louisville Legion. Four hundred out of eight hundred! Food for reflection, Mr. Polk.

Mr. Walker has made a bargain with Carling & Co. of New York, to place one million of dollars in New Orleans during the present month.

When the Mexicans between Cerro Gordo and Vera Cruz heard of Santa Ana's defeat, their feelings gave way to sorrow, and their lamentations over the misfortunes and disgrace of their country were loud and affecting. Thus it is. We forget that the Mexicans are men of like passions with ourselves, and that what gives us pleasure gives them poignant pain.

The Surgical Journal tells a story of a man under the influence of lethan having had a white hot iron rod two feet long run down his back on each side of the spine, &c. without feeling it. That page of the Journal is fit to be sewed in the next edition of Munchausen's works, or the Washington Union!

Two churches were robbed in Richmond last week of the pulpit lamps and parts of the carpet. The robbers must have been poorer than church mice!

Madeira. Famine has seized upon this beautiful island. On the 12th of march there was not a barrel of flour to be had. The supplies which had been previously ordered had not arrived and the apprehensions of all classes were terrible!

The trade of North Alabama has begun to turn its current to Chattanooga, and thence to Augusta, Georgia. When the State Road is finished between Rome in Georgia to Gunter's Landing on the Tennessee river, the whole trade of North Alabama will seek Charleston and Savannah.

Gen. Taylor has been nominated for the Presidency in Mount Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., by a public meeting, of which Judge French, formerly a Democratic member of Congress, was chairman, and Henry Daniel, formerly a Democratic member of Congress from the same district was a member of the committee to draft resolutions for the meeting. Oh—Mr. Polk, Mr. Polk oh!

Mr. Polk's Mexican Tariff has ruined the American merchants in Tampico to the tune of two millions. They pronounce it a decree to protect Mexican manufactures and agriculture. Two cents a pound on American raw cotton and the high duty on American flour, yard, &c., give just such aid and comfort to the enemy as he desires. Oh, wise Mr. Polk!

The editor of the Washington Union, says the Louisville Journal, is shocked at the idea that General Taylor should not be interrogated in regard to his principles. Well, sir, if you are so very anxious that he shall be interrogated, why don't you interrogate him? What are you waiting for?

We do wonder, says the Louisville Journal, if the Tory leaders will not undertake to get up a cry that it is only the aristocracy that support old Rough and Ready for the Presidency, and that the bone and sinew can have no kind of sympathy with such a ruffian shirted and silk gloved candidate!

The New Orleans people are looking for an English mail steamer at their port next month.

From 1829 to 1837 the streets of Mobile were regularly paved with sea shells, and they had no yellow fever during that period in that city. Since 1837 they have been paved with ordinary stones, and yellow fever has almost decimated the town.

As Scipio was called Africanus for conquering North Africa, why may not General Taylor be surnamed Mexicanus? The Louisville Journal thinks it ought to be so, and that the Tories by calling him a Mexican Whig honor him without knowing it.

MR. WESTER was dined by the Charleston New England Society in grand style last Saturday night. A large number of South Carolina's eminent men were present. His speech was very splendid on the occasion, replete with good hard sense, and plenty of genuine humor.

The Medical Convention recently in session in New York, recommend very hotly and very properly a more thorough course of education of youth studying for the profession, and a longer time for attendance upon lectures, dissections, &c.

The forest in the neighborhood of Denton, Maryland, catching the spirit of illuminations in honor of the Old Hero of Buena Vista, took fire last week, and before it could be arrested, 25 acres of fine timber were consumed!

Troup Factory. The editor of the Macon Journal and Messenger announces the fact that 'Troup Factory,' situated about ten miles S. E. of Lagrange, Ga is now nearly completed, and will be in successful operation in about two months. It is owned by Messrs. Robertson, Leslie, & Co. They will commence operations with 1,600 spindles and 20 looms.

WHERE ARE THE POLKS?—Not in the battle fields of Mexico, not in the American garrisons in Mexico. Where are they then? In the White House tyrannizing over a confiding People's rights; and in fine, fat offices at the expense of the good People. They'll not be there long—that's one comfort!

The Bloomington, Ia. Herald has hoisted the Taylor flag and says that since the time of Washington universal opinion has not so clearly pointed out any individual as the man for that elevated—as Gen. Taylor. He is most emphatically the choice of the PEOPLE. What will Mr. Ritchie do?

The Tory paper at Auburn, New York, says Prentice, nominates a notorious negro, convicted of murder, as a proper candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with General Taylor. The people are in a far way to teach these Tory scoundrels, these accursed villifiers of their country's glorious champions, better morals and better manners.

The Madison, Wisconsin, Express has hoisted old Rough and Ready's flag. Oh, Mr. Ritchie! Speaking of the National Whig, the Express says that the editor "wields the pen with a master hand!" That's a compliment worth having.

The Bangor Courier says that one of the ship owners on the Penobscot has three vessels building—one to be called Zachary Taylor, another General Taylor, and another Rough and Ready.

A war brought on apparently by accident, has led to the conquest of one of the most magnificent countries in the universe.—New York Tory Post.

Was it accident that General Taylor was ordered to occupy Corpus Christi? Was it accident that he was ordered to the left bank of the Rio Grande? Was it accident that he was directed to cross the Rio Grande, and carry the war into undisputed Mexican territory?

General Taylor's chief characteristics are uncompromising courage and a determined will, and whether or not these traits, united to an almost entire ignorance of common law, fit him for "the first office in the people's gift," those most intimately acquainted with the administration of Gen. Jackson will be best able to determine.—Cor. Balt. American.

Leaving the unworthy fling against General Jackson to the scorn and contempt it deserves, we have it in our power to give the lie direct to the assertion that Gen. Taylor is ignorant of the common law. He has more intimate knowledge of it than an army of Polks—and has, what nine-tenths of the lawyers of the country have not—the brains to apply its principles!

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

We heard yesterday afternoon, but not until after our paper had gone to press, that a requisition had been made upon Judge Cranch, of the District Circuit Court for the person of Samuel W. Phillips, of this city, engaged in the shoe business, charged with obtaining goods in Philadelphia, under false pretences. Mr. Phillips was arrested, and on Wednesday, brought before the Judge under a writ of habeas corpus. However, he was not discharged from custody, and in the afternoon was conveyed from the city, in charge of an officer, to Philadelphia.

Fires and winter clothing are to-day quite comfortable, notwithstanding we are nearly in the middle of May.

Mr. James Clephane has issued proposals for establishing a reading room, on an extensive scale. If fitness be a guarantee of success, he will be liberally encouraged in his enterprise.

We have hung "our banner on the outer wall," at the large building near the depot; therefore, advertisers will know where to find our office.

Mr. Bones wants to know whether a sequestration of the dollars and cents of the clergy of Mexico by our Government would be "respecting private property," as promised in all the proclamations to the Aztecs!

Among the distingue in the city is the Hon. David Tod, our new minister to Brazil.

The Temperance men will hold a meeting this evening at the Hall, E near Ninth streets, to debate a resolution—"that in view of the enormous evils produced by the use of intoxicating drinks, we must hold all who favor their use, either by word or example, as aiders and abettors in producing the direful effects of intemperance throughout the land."

Preparations are, we understand, being made at the Marine Barracks for the accommodation of the three companies for the war recently raised in this city.

LLOYD'S ROUGH AND READY SAND SOAP, AND TABLETS,

FOR CLEANSING, WHITENING, AND BEAUTIFYING THE HANDS.

LLOYD has ingeniously succeeded in inventing a Compound of such a delightful nature as to render the hardest and roughest skin soft, fair, and delicately white.

Ladies Riding, Gardening, or Painting, and Gentlemen Shooting, Hunting, Fishing, Cricketing, Rowing, &c., or any amusement or exertion prejudicial to the hands, will find the improved ROUGH AND READY WASH BALLS and TABLETS, pleasingly efficacious in removing all hardness, stain, redness, and all other cutaneous disfigurements; preventing and rendering the skin soft, fair, and pliable.

From the nice combination of Balsamic ingredients introduced into the composition, they form a fine Creamy Lather, with the hardest or Sea Water, which renders them very desirable for Salt Water Baths. They produce the most softening and refreshing sensation, and will be found an excellent substitute for the Flesh Brush.

They are highly recommended to Captains of Ships, Merchants, and all who trade with foreign countries, as they will retain their virtue in any climate. For sale by CHAS. STOTT, Drug & Apoth., corner of 7th & Pa. av. may 12—4f

Dr. C. A. Van Zandt's Health Restorative Pills is a medicine which not only cures but prevents disease, capable of great results, and equally calculated to be safely used for apparently small ones. We all know how dreadful and dangerous a seated bilious disorder is, and we are also well aware of the seeming insignificance of its first warnings or incipency. The individual suffering from slight pains in his chest, back, or stomach, or from occasional nausea, dull headache, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, trifling privation of appetite, and other disagreeable visitations so commonly and foolishly looked upon as unimportant, may not know that these symptoms, treated so contemptuously, are the consequences of a diseased state of the liver, which if not remedied, will lead either to speedy death or a long train of unbearable ills which are known by the following names: Hypochondria, mania, dizziness, slow fevers, epilepsy, asthma, dropsy, rheumatism, chlorosis, convulsions, nausea, nervousness, cramps, gout, pleurisy, jaundice, irritability, and violence, dyspepsia, hysterics, scurvy, foul stomach, dry coughs, glandular affections, colds, lingering sore throats, various disorganizations of the great intestine, strictures and spasmodic complaints internally, eruptions, shortness of breath, heartburn, neuralgia, vital inflammation, flatulence, gastric fevers, &c.

Sometimes, too, there ensues an irregular action of the heart. Take these pills and suffer no more.
